

Here we are again, preparing for another week of weirdness. I don't know about all of you, but I'm still not digging this new learning. Over the next few weeks, I will be changing some things up. I'm hoping for some letting up of some restrictions and I'd like to distribute some supplies to do some fun activities. Unfortunately, I know this may seem unrealistic. I hope you know I am still cheering us all on, even if it's from far away. We are all struggling to manage all that's on our plates, but one thing I know for sure is that we are all doing our best! I will begin making phone calls regarding lessons that are completed and just to speak to my little people beginning next week. Feel free to call me through REMIND anytime. I am hopeful we will all survive this craziness of 2020! Keep being awesome and remember, WE GOT THIS!
