

Dear Parents and students,

Hello! I hope you are all hanging in there! We are still in the midst of the unknown and each day gets a little more strange. Today, I had a student message me on Class Dojo and it isn't even someone I know from our district! Come to find out, this little guy was searching for his teacher hoping he could reach her to have a conversation. It made me think about all my little people and how much I enjoy seeing them and hearing their voices on ZOOM. Some of them are still missing and that's ok. I know this isn't for everyone. This week, I will be calling everyone through REMIND. I don't have times allotted yet, but expect a random number to show up on your phones!

Hang in there and know, this isn't forever, it just feels like it.
